

Organization for Safety and Asepsis Procedures (OSAP)

Dentistry's Resource for Infection Control and Safety

MEMBER BENEFITS 2010

	What You Receive	Benefits to You
TRUSTED INFORMATION	FULL 24-hour access to FAQs, publications, CE, sample policies, chemical charts and more	Like having a personal reference library at your fingertips at all times
	Customized answers and references	Saves hours of time researching on web, in textbooks. Allows you to get your questions answered by subject matter experts
TIMELY UPDATES	Infection Control In Practice (ICIP) newsletter (6 times/year). User-friendly publication that distills the most critical information about critical infection control topics with charts and checklists to implement easily	Provides ongoing, up-to-date, practical information for staff training and practice efficiency
	The OSAP Report Online (TORO) online newsletter (monthly)	Provides easy online access to relevant information and research around the world – links are categorized by topic to save time
	Email notifications highlighting important information, newly released publications and educational materials	Never miss late-breaking news about infection control and have accurate answers to questions that your patients and staff will be asking
EDUCATION	Live Programs include 4-day intermediate level IC Course” and weekend high level infection control symposium	Access to educational opportunities for every level, budget and need. Save money through generous membership discounts
	Online and packaged programs include If Saliva Were Red , INTERACT , OSAP's Guide to the CDC Guidelines and more	Access to curriculum and training guides that can help you teach proper technique and save you development time. Membership discounts are available for many programs.
	CE Credit available	Numerous opportunities for you and your staff to earn continuing education credits recognized by ADA CERP and DANB
COMMUNITY	Networking opportunities with peers, product manufacturers/suppliers, and experts in infection control and safety	Share issues and obtain help and resources from those who have faced the same challenges. Stay current with infection control trends.
	Membership fees help support OSAP activities	Your membership helps further the goal of keeping dental staff and patients safe by improving infection control and safety practices in dentistry
INTERNATIONAL GUIDANCE	Source of guidelines and information for and from countries around the world	Access to One-stop reference library of relevant information saves time and gives valuable insight into issues segmented geographically
	Traveler's Guide to Safe Dental Care	Information available in several languages
SERVICE	Infection Control Guide for Humanitarian Missions	Guidance to ensure you are prepared and safe and that you keep your patients and team safe, too

OSAP is for:

- Dental office infection control coordinators
- Dental educators
- Dental consultants including sales personnel
- YOU!

OSAP membership gives you:

- TRUSTED INFORMATION ✓✓✓
- PRACTICAL GUIDANCE ✓✓✓✓✓✓
- TIMELY UPDATES ✓✓✓✓✓✓✓✓✓
- EDUCATION AND CE ✓✓✓✓✓✓✓✓✓✓✓✓

Simplify, streamline and save time and money on infection control and safety.

Join OSAP today!

YES, I would like to become a member:

- $110/year U.S. $160/year Outside U.S. $100/year Electronic Only

Method of payment: Check (enclosed) Visa MasterCard

Card Number _____ Expiration Date _____

Name and Educational Credentials _____

Practice / School _____

Title / Occupation _____

Street Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____ Phone _____ Fax _____

Name and Address on Card (if different): _____

Please tell us who referred you to OSAP _____

Return to: OSAP, P.O. Box 6297, Annapolis, MD 21401 or fax form to +1-410-571-0028

Questions? Call OSAP at +1-800-298-OSAP (U.S./Canada), +1-410-571-0003, or e-mail us at office@osap.org

For more information about OSAP membership go to www.osap.org

Reference Code: