

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 24, 2014 (ANNAPOLIS) — Continuing its mission to be the world's leading advocate for the safe and infection-free delivery of oral healthcare, the Organization for Safety, Asepsis and Prevention (OSAP) welcomes Burkhart Dental Supply, Clorox Professional Products Company, and Microcopy as members of its growing list of infection control corporate members.

OSAP's membership program unites a committed community of clinicians, educators, consultants, associations, policymakers and companies who share the organization's global vision of safe oral healthcare for people everywhere. The organization's members, publications and educational programs are all focused on reducing risk and increasing compliance with trusted infection control guidance.

"We are excited to welcome these three leading dental companies to the OSAP community," said OSAP Executive Director Therese Long, MBA, CAE. "The timing is terrific as OSAP celebrates its 30th anniversary this year. We look forward to optimizing our partnerships with them in the fight to ensure safe oral healthcare throughout the world."

For more than 125 years, Burkhart Dental Supply has been providing equipment, repair, supplies, consulting and continuing education services to dentists in the Western United States. Burkhart prides itself on helping dentists achieve personal and professional success. For more information, visit www.burkhartdental.com.
