

Who should be the key contact?

The key contact receives all communications related to membership renewal and billing. It is up to the company/practice/school to designate a key contact. We strongly suggest that the key contact should be an either an accounts payable department or someone within that department.