Am I able to register multiple people at the same time for a course?

No. Course registrations are linked to each person's personal profile. All individuals wanting to participate in a course and claim CE must register separately. OSAP is unable to make any exceptions to this.